ONE DAY AHEAD.

George Francis Train on His Globe-Trotting Trip.

New York, May 19.—Citizen George Francis Train came in on the Etrutia this morning, sixty days from Tacoma, Wash, on his trip around the world. He has beaten all globs-circling records so sound-by that he thought he could afford to take a day off in town today. He will pesume ly that he thought he could afford to take a day off in town today. He will resume his journey at 6 o'clock temorrow night by the New York Central route to Chicago, where he will take the Chicago & Northwestern to Tacoma. He expects to reach Tacoma, which was his starting point, next Saturday at noon, thus completing the circle of the globe in sixty-live and three-fourth days. "The Citizen" is looking brown and hearty, and is greatly clated over his achievement. He calls himself Phineas Fogg, and says that in beating the time of Jules Verne's hero he is now having his revenge out of the novelist for having stolen from him the idea of the novel, "Around the World in Eighty Days."

Days."
"That was my idea," swid he. "I went around the world in 1870 in eighty days, and Jules Verne rangin up the idea and made a fiction of it without giving me credit. But where's his eighty days now!"
Citizen Train is travelling around the world at the expense of the hustling young city of Tacoma, which is enjoying a boom just at present and hopes to attract attention by Train's exploits.

The idea was "The Citizen's." He wrote from Boston proposing it, and Tacoma

"It is no novelty to me to circle the carth," said "The Citizan." "I've been round before. Wall opened his eyes when he heard me talk the language of every county we want through the county we want through the same talk the language of every county we want through the county we want through county we went through. I speak twenty different languages."

TWO BISHOPS ELECTED.

The Business Transacted by the Methodist Conference South.

Sr. Louis, Mo., May 19.—The session of the M. E. church South today was devoted to the election of two bishops. There were no regular or formal nominations but each delegate voted for whom he pleased. The first ballot was as follows: A. G. Haygood 171, O. P. Fitzgerald 53, David Morton 32, H. C. Morrison 29, P. A. Peterson 26, R. M. Steed 25, B. M. Messick 29, W. A. Chandler 17, E. T. Hass 16, J. D. Barbee 16, E. M. Brands 12. Scattering votes were also cast for about twenty other persons.

Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Stedd.

It will be remember that Dr. Haygood was elected to this office in 1882 but declined because he could not lay down the educational work in hand, being at the time president of the Emory college, Oxford, Ga. He has been a conspicuous advocate of the education and evangelication of the colored people of the south, being the author of the book called "Our Brother in Black" and since 1883agent of the "John F. Slater fund" for the freedmen of the south.

SUPREMELY DELIGHTFUL To the emaciated and debilitated invalid is the sense of returning health and strength produced by Hostetter's Stomach When that promoter of vigor is tested by persons in feeble health, its restorative and vitalizing potency soon evinces itself in improved appetite, digestion and nightly repose, the sole conditions under which strength and nerve quietude is vouchsafed to the human system. A gain in flesh of course ensues upon the restoration and assimilation. As surely as winter follows the fall of the leaf, does disease shadow the footsteps of declining strength, when the premature decadence of vitality is not arrested. Marasmus, coustimption and other wasting maladies are prompt to pasten upon the enfeebled.
